NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JUNE 7.5 THE NEWS FROM EUROPE is again of startling import. The Northern Autocrat ostentationally casts his sword into the scale where the destinies of nations hang trembling, confident of his power to crush the rising hope of Freedom. He marches ostensibly against Hungary but really against Garmany, Italy, and the free spirit everywhere slowly progressing. awake or awakening throughout Europe. Despotism decrees that human blood shall flow in rivers that the chains of centuries may be tightened, the wrongs of the millions be doubled, the receding darkness resume her dreary and dis-No choice is left the Nations but Slavery or Death. Let it be remembered, through the years of carnage now commencing by whom and on whose behalf this dire alternative is pre-

Hungary is the first point of attack. That Nation is one of the oldest and bravest among the Peoples of modern Europe-long the bulwari Moslem hordes before Russia or Austria had an existence-when the latter was at heat a petty principality, and the former the domain of savage tribes less enlightened and scarcely more formi dable than our Indiana. Defeated and her monarch slain on her last great battle-field, Hungary called to her throne the bouse of Hapsburg, not as conquerors but as magistrates, sworn to uphold her independence and administer her laws. She never thought of becoming an appendage, much less a province, of Austria, but an ally in the great work of resisting the tide of Ottoman aggression," for which either alone was proved unequal. That end was achieved. From the walls of sorely belesquered Vienns the Moslem standards were hurled back in shameful defeat by the gathered might of Eastern Europe-hurled back never to return. For three centuries the fortunes of Austria have been profusely nourished by Hungarian blood. At length long obsequious Hun gary demands of Austria the fulfillment of the guaranties which induced her to yield her crown to an Austrian prince. She asks the correction of cer tain glaring abuses, the restoration of some portion of the rights which have one by one been fliched away from her people. The Austrian oligarchy answers with the sword, and with the utter abr gation and formal denial of rights to Hungary as a separate nation. Besten by default at the bar of History and Humanity, Austria is doubly discomfitted in her ready appeal to arms. The minions or despotism are at all points chased from Hungarian soil. All hope of her subjugation by Austrian force alone is dissipated -abandoned. It is mani feet that Vienna is far more in danger of capture Here the Autocrat of all the Russias interposhis colossal strength. In swelling words of blasphemy, he reviles the Hungarians for daring to as sert their rights and threatens to crush them by his power. His accusations are lies, and of no account, but his five hundred thousand trained vete rans-pure fighting machines without as idea be youd their daily exercise or an aspiration beyon a night's debauch-men who would shoot their mothers at the word of command as mechanically as a saw cuts timber-these are not to be lightly spokes of. Above all, his uncounted millions hoarded gold are appalling. Give the Hungaria. these, and they will waste away his armies destitute as they are of money or credit, we fear they must fall unless sasisted—and their fall drags down the whole German Democracy. Let Hun gary succumb, and the last whisper of resistant to the thirty odd Royal tyrants and plundere will be hushed, and the Fredericks and Ernests will promptly proceed to imprison and shoot the patriots whom in their weakness and terror they cajoled with promises of liberal constitution which they will now repudiate and scoff at

All eyes turn, therefore, to FRANCE, as the sheet-anchor of the liberties of the world. nobly have her gallent people responded to the mute appeal. The taunt that she is 'a Republic without Republicans' falls pointless. In spite lamentable popular ignorance and distraction-i spite of all the appliances of corrupt and unworthy rulers-her elections show that the popular pulbeats high with love of Liberty. The returns as tound all parties and electrify all who strong and hope for a better order of things. Two Hos DRED AND FORTY Deputies have been returned by the Socialist Democracy-by the party whose Republicanism no man will dispute. They may no be the ruling but they will be the leading party the new Assembly. They may not form a Minis try, but they will seal the doom of that which shameful errand to Rome They may not command an immediate recogniti of the Right to Labor and Education for all, but their election sets the seal of doom on all schemes of violent Reaction, either by the restoration of the Bourbons or the Constitution of Louis Napo leon a President for life. The effect of this victo ry of the Laborers is already powerfully felt in the ction of the Assembly-it is felt in the inaction of Oudinot-it will be felt throughout Europe. It Hungary can but stand six months, Franco will stand or fall with her. Courage, suffering Nations the gray dawn is before us!
